(See page 2 for more about the name)

Newsletter of the International Presentation Lay Movement for Mission

THE TRANSFIGURATION 2015

At the heart of our movement lies:

A partnership with the Divine

we attend to God each day and our actions are informed by that commitment.

A passion for the poorest

we stand with the poorest in society.

A covenant with creation

honouring all of creation, we live and promote sustainable lives.

A newsletter to connect everyone who feels drawn to Nano Nagle. A sharing of ideas and a deepening of understanding Nano and her impact on our lives - Locally and globally

A song my children sang when they were young has the chorus, "Surprise, Surprise, God is a surprise!" We can see God's hand at work in surprising places and people..... Recall the story of the man begging Nano's brother to get Nano to take his child into her school. Her secret was discovered when Joseph, as she described in a letter, 'came to his wife and me, laughing at the conceit of a man who thought I was in the situation of a school mistress. Then I owned up that I had set up a school.'

Life is full of surprises..... We need only to open ourselves to the possibility of the unexpected. The routine of life can dull our sense of awe.

Jesus' friends thought they knew what to expect from him. Were they in for a surprise!

The Transfiguration of the Lord can sound magical. Jesus goes up a mountain and his clothes become dazzlingly white. The Prophets Moses & Elijah appear and talk to him. And then it is all over and Jesus tells his disciples to say nothing.

Miss Nagle who had been driven in a carriage to the ball in Paris hid her light well.

Hold on to the absurdity of the incident. Why did it happen? Surely so that we could understand that Jesus is at once one of the prophets and that he is God, and lives for all eternity in a blaze of dazzling and unapproachable light. The true miracle of the Transfiguration is surely the fact that for the rest of the time Jesus hid his glory so well.

We all know the story of the old beggar woman sitting in the corner of the shop in Cork, waiting for the owner to return to give her money for her schools. Miss Nagle who had been driven in a carriage to the ball in Paris hid her light well.

What was a significant experience of awe?

What stopped you and caught your attention?

Our Mission

Our mission is to do justice in the way of Jesus, in union with the Presentation Congregation worldwide.

We do so in the context of family life or as single men and women, committed to continuing the mission of Christ in today's world, after the example of Nano Nagle. We do so by building local communities, local cells committed to act for justice.

Our Mission has been taken from the Friends of Nano guidelines http://www.presentationistersunion.org/\_uploads/\_ckpg/files/Guidelines%20Friends%20of%20Nano%20Movement%20\(Booklet%20A5\_FINAL\).pdf.pdf)

Naming the Newsletter

Those of us who are parents know the great care taken when choosing a name for our children. Names are not only important but contain meaning. Many children are named after family members who came before them taking a pride in family tradition - acknowledging where the child has come from.

Large numbers of you e-mailed suggestions for the newsletter name and voted on the one you thought was important - that held meaning - that said something about where we have come from. Nano's Echo was the overwhelming favourite and some of you wrote to say why.

The following reflection was sent by Ronel Hilado Sapu-An from the Philippines and sums up what others said.

An echo is a reflection of sound waves. It is the voice that carries the authentic sound of the original source.

Nano's echo also spreads and lingers that way. Her echo calls us to respond to the calling to extend a helping hand, to share love to our brothers and sisters especially to those looking for refuge and healing; to care for all God's creation and to be an instrument to continue her mission.

Nano's echo reminds us that we have the mission to comfort for the world is crying. Her echo spreads to the four corners of the earth, connects and lingers to our hearts thus, we respond to her call.

'And the Lord added to their number' Acts 2:47

Kathy Hogan (Fargo, USA) sent this photo from a recent gathering. She reports, 'We had 51 Associates, 21 Sisters and 2 guests participate in our annual gathering. The youngest was our Junior Friend of Nano, Greg Ortmeier who is 17, and the oldest is Sister Petronilla who is in her mid 90's. It was a day full of joy, quiet reflection and great sharing of faith. We had associates receiving their 10, 15 and 25 year recognitions.'

Five new Associates make their commitment after a year of formation. Cindy Maritato, Tammy Campbell, Diane Hill, Mary Margaret Nelson, and Julie Wagner.

It is His work and has not been affected by human means. —Nano Nagle

Laudato Si (Praised Be)

One of our Core Values is a Covenant with the Divine. A wonderful resource has been produced by Fr. Thomas Reese SJ who is a senior analyst for National Catholic Reporter. All the hard work is done! You may like to gather a group of people together and use it as a study guide.

How often have we seen her passing with steady composure through the rigours of every season to tend her little flock? How often have we seen her, after a well spent day, returning through the darkness of the night, dripping with rain, mingled in the bustling crowd, moving thoughtfully along by the faint glimmering of a wretched lantern, withholding from herself in this manner the necessities of life to administer the comforts of it to others.

Bishop William Copping, 1794
